

Therapeutic Riding Education: Professional Issues

Octavia J. Brown and Jean M. Tebay

Abstract: This paper was presented at the Third European Conference on Therapeutic Riding, Munich, Germany, September 1998. The authors raise issues of standards, training, professional credentials, research, translation of teaching materials, and consensus on terminology and explore them in the light of the future development of therapeutic riding as a bona fide international profession.